Monday and Oct. 1 00 Z liabeas Corpus Hearing in the Criminal District Court Yesterday. DANIEL and CHARLES FROHMAN

With a Company of 30 People, charge of murder against Charles Smith on account of the shooting and subsequent death of Matt Toole several months ago, in the criminal district court yesterday resulted in the defendant being remanded to jail without the privilege of ball. Only a few of the witnesses present were examined, the defense not putting Jim Toole, a brother of the deseased was the first witness to take the stand and he only testified as to the time of the shooting, the appearance of the wound, etc. Dr. Armstrong, who attended Toole at St. Joseph's infirmary after he reat St. Joseph's infirmary after he received the wound, was next examined.

He said the wound was smooth and even and did present the appearance of having been made with a fat-end builet.
Tom Cook, a stepson of Smin, testified that he was at home on the night and at the time the shooting occurred. He said he saw Smith at the house about thirty minutes before the shooting, at Presenting, by Special Permission of Colenel Weidon's Second Regt. Infantry, thirty minutes before the shooting, a which time Smith left the house, though the witness did not see him leave. Cook said he heard the firing and wanted to go to the place where it occurred, but his mother protested. Three shots were Finest equipped Musical Military organiza-on in the world. Every evening at 8 p. m.; unday afternoon 3 to 5 lb. Price of admission cents; children under 12 years free when ac-impanied by purent. Change of programme fired. He said he had seen Smith clean and load his pistol three days before the shooting occurred but had not seen the pistol since. Smith wore a black hat that night, and the witness remembered there were three tours in the reload it three days before Toole was shot.
After the shooling of Toole, Smith told witness to keep silent about the pistol being gone, as he wanted to catch the thick Cook testified that on the occa-Street Car From 7 to 8.30 Every cion when Smith was cleaning and loading the gun the latter remarked that he would stop business in the hollow; that he would like to make some of them burn the wind and made other references con. The Park is thoroughly renovated for this cerning those who frequented the hollow at night. Witness had heard the defendint express regret-that Toole was killed and at the same time express fear of being mobbed. The pistol which Smita cleaned and leaded was a 38 short, and according to the witness, the cartridges he used were 38 longs, and the ends had KNecco & Eisemann K to be cut off to make them fit.

A. C. Spikes testified that he worked for Smith, but at the time of the shooting he was at Scabrook. Spikes said he slent in the kitchen are testing to the state. ing he was at Scabrook. Spikes said he slept in the kitchen, and after he re-aturned from Scabrook he had heard Smith say he had no gun. He also testi-fied that Smith told him that he was the one who killed Toole and also that he had heard Smith say to his wife, "I killed Matt, but if I could bring him back I would do so: I am sorry I did it; I thought it was some —— ninger."

Pinkle Durke testified also, but about all there was in her testimony was that Smith's assailant wors a black that Smith's assailant were a black hat and was on his knees when he fired. She said that Jesse Meyer was at her house when she went out, and that he was there when she returned.
